

Key Starr Tops Star List for YMCA Day Show

That "Side By Side" singing Star—Key Starr—will head the list of entertainers who will appear at the Y-Day in Hollywood Variety Show, which more than 100 Torrance area YMCA's will attend on Oct. 31 at the Hollywood Bowl.

Others are: Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, Marie Wilson, Joan Caulfield, Libera, Art Linkletter, who will be master of ceremonies, and television star Jack Bailey, who will crown a young lady, "Princess for a Day," according to Stan Roberts, "Y" executive secretary.

Roberts said the group of more than 12,000 representing more than 60 MCAs, will also attend the UCLA-California football game as part of the all-day festivities.

If enough persons make reservations for this event by Oct. 23, a bus will be chartered to carry the group on the trip, Roberts said.

"This is the 21st year the event has been held and the local 'Y's' use it as a kick-off for its annual school year program.

As usual there will be many prizes awarded at the Hollywood Bowl Variety Show and the program will be broadcast from coast to coast.

Special features of Y-Day include a talent competition and an essay contest for young people in attendance.

Roberts said adults are also invited and urge parents to make it an all-day outing for the family.

"We hope to have the biggest crowd we have ever had," he

LAW IN ACTION

REQUIREMENTS OF A WILL
The legislature creates the right and makes the rules for distributing your property by will.

Changes in other laws, for instance tax law, may also affect the way your wishes are carried out. Besides, new conditions in your life—through births, marriages, divorces, or death—may impair your will.

So, have your will checked over once in a while to see whether it meets new conditions in the law or in your life.

A valid will requires certain things:

1. It must declare your intention: It usually says that certain persons or institutions shall become owners of certain property when the "testator" (willmaker) dies. As a rule, you should express your intention in writing.

2. You must sign a written will. If the testator meant it to be a full signature, almost any kind of signature will do, so long as it can be identified as his. His "mark" will do.

3. You sign your will at the bottom to keep unscrupulous persons from adding provisions to the will.

4. Generally speaking, a will must be published and attested: You publish it when you tell the witnesses in your presence that you are signing your will.

The witnesses (at least two or better, three) attest your signing of the will by signing it themselves. They have then witnessed the execution of the will.

"Holographic" wills are an exception. People may write out such a will in their own hand, date it, and sign it. Where the testator's wishes can be legally interpreted, the court probates the will, though it is not "published" or "witnessed." Such wills are sometimes hard to interpret legally and they often fail to meet other requirements.

5. Your will should be dated. To be valid, holographic wills must be dated, by the month, the day, and the year, and all others should be dated. For one thing when a person leaves more than one will, the latest one prevails.

Women Influence Style of Cars Says Designer

American women had an important influence on the styling of 1964 Plymouth cars, particularly the interiors, says V. M.

Exner, who directed the work which created the new models.

Exner said his staff of designers and stylists studied trends in home furnishing and decorations and reached some conclusions about what should go into the new models. Their principal conclusion was that color coordination is of utmost importance to women—and to their husbands, too.

Price, which includes transportation, the variety show, the football game, and a box lunch, is $2.75 for all.

ican Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corp. Local Union No. 218 and the Torrance works management are co-operating in an effort to secure 100 per cent employee participation in the fund drive for the Community Chest of Los Angeles area, which supplies 25 per cent of the total operating funds needed by the Children's Hospital.

Speaker to Help Church Celebrate 'Youth Challenge'

The Rev. Merrill Nichols, former pastor here and now a faculty member of Life Bible College, will speak on Wednesday evening, Oct. 21, at 7:30 p.m., at the Foursquare Church, 1207 El Prado, as part of the local church's celebration of Youth Challenge which is being feted internationally by the youth of the church the week of Oct. 18-25.

The film "De Shazer," a colored film that tells the true story of one of the Doolittle raiders who turned missionary, according to H. B. Kidner, president of the church Crusader group. The film concerns the story of 40 months spent in a Japanese prison camp, and the aftermath of this imprisonment. The youth of the church will be in full charge of the arrangements have been made to present the film "De Shazer," a pastor, said. They will lead the songs and present the musical program. Included in the program will be Evangelism, Visitation, New Members Drive, Stewardship, and Consecration. The national celebration is designed to give emphasis to Youth and its responsibility to God and the Church.
